Michael Guggenheim develops and implements sound real estate strategies in the areas of tenant representation, project leasing, property management and asset disposition. He has served as a court-appointed receiver on numerous foreclosure proceedings, and has acted on behalf of various special servicers and financial institutions in the management and disposition of distressed real estate.

Michael has been involved in the commercial brokerage and management business for over 29 years, predominantly in the Ohio market. Prior to joining Guggenheim Commercial Real Estate Group, he spent nine years with a distinguished retail brokerage firm, specializing in tenant/landlord representation. Michael also spent five years as a leasing representative with prominent mall developer, The Richard E. Jacobs Group.

EDUCATION/AFFILIATIONS

Michael is a graduate of Indiana University, and is a member of the Akron Cleveland Association of Realtors (ACAR), International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) candidate. He received his real estate license in 1987 and broker license in 2001. In addition, he is a board member of the Jewish Family Service Association.
