Steven Roth has over 25 years in the real estate industry. He works with the leasing, management and sale of all types and sizes of real estate. Steven represents landlords and tenants throughout the State of Ohio focusing on property management, valuations, market analysis, site selection, lease negotiations, marketing and disposition. Projects cover freestanding buildings, strip centers, office buildings, malls, industrial buildings and land. Steven represented numerous financial institutions, both locally and nationally, in the management and disposition of their real estate.

Before coming to Guggenheim Commercial Real Estate Group in 2008, Steven managed a mortgage banking office for Prime Lending and worked as a regional sales manager for Fifth Third Bank and Metropolitan Bank and Trust. Also, his real estate auction background from the S&L crisis days has given him unique perspective in today's challenging environment. Steven began his commercial real estate career as a leasing agent with Developers Diversified in 1991.

EDUCATION/AFFILIATIONS

Steve received a B.S. degree in Marketing in 1986 from Indiana University. Steven is a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC).
